The 8th day of the 8th mo: 1697

I have the 2 letters from thee the latter with out date giving an account that the silver is still on brought home w<sup>ch</sup> is nothing to my mind if it stay there until it has done working & then be moved after ward it will spayle it that it will never be clear again & I sent it down from the press to have it forth with put in its place & write two letters to thee about it that thou might take care to get it home & now thou hast let it stand until it has done work my the silver will not be half worth what it wold have be after this comes home let it be forth with got home. I mean that for me & all R.P.
I wold not have her to delay her & if they will not go into the butt dry then let them lie in the great Room until I come I tell David I heard the Roomers lye still open I wold have them got done w<sup>ch</sup> what speed may me it will endanger your health to lye so open at this time the air is so poor my & desire him to get the upper doors shut & look upon it that all may not be lost at so random a rate or that always confined to the house in the chimney above or the chimney in thyn my love to him & grand & friends there & to you all & desire you may all so well be have your selves at to game a good report & the love of friends & improve your mind well & then shall be so well pleased & am well pleased with thy suitable & truly our let me hear of you from you & date thy letters read

I am David's man if he has any leisure time at a night to improve by read or writing or arithmetic & will gladly hear for him & care be not to hinder his mastery

Suppose I am thy & your friends my father if thou counts any thing let me know I remember you
